DIRECTIONS TO LIMPOPO-LIPADI FROM JOHANNESBURG

Limpopo-Lipadi is in the Tuli Block, eastern Botswana. It is roughly a 500-kilometre drive from Johannesburg, mostly on good tar roads, so shareholders can make the approximately six to seven-hour trip. The Reserve's western gate is about 1h20 from Martin's Drift border crossing between Botswana and South Africa.

For more detailed directions, use your GPS or ask our reservations officer when making your booking.

TRANSFERS FROM GABORONE OR JOHANNESBURG

For those that prefer to let someone else navigate, we recommend WATERBERG TRANSFERS who specialise in road transfers from Johannesburg - O.R. Tambo International Airport to Limpopo-Lipadi. No group is too big or too small. Contact Lindie on info@waterbergtransfers.com

If you arrive via Sir Seretse Khama International Airport (in Gaborone), your transfer can be booked at the same time as your booking via reservations@limpopo-lipadi.org. The one-way trip will take about 4,5 to 5 hours to the Limpopo-Lipadi gate.

BY AIR

For those that prefer to fly we have our own Bush Airstrip.

With the capacity for light aircraft to fly from anywhere in Botswana to Limpopo-Lipadi, our airstrip can accommodate aircrafts up to PC12 jets in partnership with one of our providers or choose your own. If coming from outside of Botswana, Immigration and Customs can be dealt with at any international airport in Botswana before heading straight out to Limpopo-Lipadi.
